

Dixie Road Widening Feasibility Study

Brampton, Ontario

Client:

Peel Region

Services:

- Functional Design

iTRANS managed a study of the need and justification and functional design of the widening of Dixie Road between Bovaird Drive and Orenda Road in Brampton. The study assessed the timing of needs, cost / benefit, safety related needs, associated with the capacity improvements and recommended interim intersection and signal timing improvements.

